One of the great challenges facing all returned missionaries is the transition from full-time mission life to full-time member life. Many missionaries flounder as they try to make that transition. I'm Home! Now What? 10 Missionary Habits for a Successful Life is designed to help returning missionaries see how the great tools they have acquired will help them be successful in the post-mission world. Each chapter is designed to help returned missionaries learn how the principles found in Preach My Gospel apply in life as they face a new world of challenges and opportunities, starting the first day of their return home. I'm Home! Now What? will help all recently returning missionaries set meaningful goals, remember sacred covenants, establish scripture study skills, promote meaningful associations, and learn principles that will eventually lead to finding an eternal companion. Using quotations from the Standard Works and the words of living prophets, I'm Home! Now What? reminds returning missionaries of principles that will endure for a lifetime.
