The Vampire Poetry of Keats John Keats

Great for poetry lovers or vampire fans!

John Keats was one of the most important poets of the Romantic Movement, despite the fact that he led such a brief life. Like many of his contemporaries, he was intrigued with the concept of the vampire in literature. Keats, and others like him, helped to create the “modern” vampire as we know it.

- This book contains two poems by Keats which are considered part of the vampire genre: the long narrative poem “Lamia,” and the shorter “La Belle Dame Sans Merci” both of which are taken from the collection Keats: Poems Published in 1820.

- Also included is an introduction and notes for each poem by vampire scholar Paulette Zastrow.
