From their home in the South Carolina foothills, Rachel and Peter James are entering the "twilight time" of their long and loving marriage. This is a stage they have wistfully anticipated for decades, a period when they could enjoy the fruits of a life well, if not always peacefully, lived. But fate has something else in store for them. There are challenges awaiting them, both internal, in the form of a shadow creeping into Peter's mind, and external, in the form of ill-doers from the present and ghosts from the past descending upon them. For Rachel and Peter, their twilight time will be a time of tests and realizations. Will they find their way through it, or will their twilight turn to darkness. A novel of rich feeling and deep exploration into the human heart, Twilight Time is the most passionate and affecting novel yet from one of our most soul-stirring novelists.
