Niko may live on boring old Earth with his family, but he's always finding a new adventure. Using the spaceship that he built from a box in his backyard and a little imagination, he flies off into space with his robot, Radar, and his dog, Tag. The only one NOT invited is his sister Posh who keeps trying to insert herself into Niko's story. In this first mission, Niko and crew (and maybe also pesky Posh) fly to the moon in search of a lost cat. Illustrated in comic-book style and featuring easy-to-read text packed with humor, Space Boy and His Dog is Niko's first adventure, with two more books planned in the series.

As a student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their interest. They just do what the professor want, like asked to the library. They go to presently there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to get complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this age, many ways to get whatever we really wish for. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Space Boy and His Dog can make you truly feel more interested to read.
