Leona is hurt when her son Eric blames her for the deaths of his grandmother and aunt. She decides that she will no longer take blame for everything that has happened and instead of chasing behind her son and trying to make things right, she puts that effort into getting her life back on track. MJ is in town and has learned the truth about his parents. Major seeks help from his son and wants him to keep Leona quiet so that she won't be able to testify and put him away for life. Eric is caught up in his feelings and don't know what to do with his relationship with Kyle. He loves him but do he love him enough to maintain a relationship with a man who family hates his lifestyle and will do everything they can to keep them a part. Is this a risk that Eric is willing to take. Find out all the answers to these questions when you read He Loves Me to Death 3.
