Along the Way Dorothy Leitch Rowlinson

Poetry is an art whose popularity appears to have declined recently. A few stalwarts remain who reach for the stars - astronauts of verse. Their efforts, like Dorothy Rowlinson, hopefully will inspire a renewal and appreciation of the richness of this form of expression of truth and beauty. Dorothy's poetry merits recognition. Thomas Cannon, Lawyer Dorothy's poetry is delightfully optimistic. She has beautifully described life so unassuming in our everyday. As usual, I enjoy reading her work. She is really talented. Rose Pigeon, Ontario, Canada I am impressed with Dorothy's beautifully descriptive thoughts. She presents her tributes with heart-warming sincerity, never afraid to lay bare her feelings or to grab her audience's attention. Scott Zirkelback, North Port Poetry Workshop & former columnist for the North Port Sun-Herald's Poetry Corner, Florida. Dorothy Rowlinson's poems are snatches of life seen through her observant eyes and polished into gems for her readers and listeners. I am privileged to know her work. Noreen Forde Mc Donald, co-founder of "Live Poets Society" facilitator of "Chats with Poets and Playwrights."
