What My Sister Didn't Know 2 (G Street Chronicles Presents) Janie DeCoster

Clay Matthews's world has spun out of control since he found out about his wife Saphire's philandering ways. Now newly divorced, he is determined to move on with his life and new love Jillian Moore...that is until Saphire makes an announcement that will change everything.

Lamonte Singletary had the kind of marriage he thought would last forever. If only his wife Gade hadn't slept with his brother days before they wed. As if that wasn't bad enough, the child he thought was his for nearly six years turns out to be his brother's. No one in the family knows his true paternity and Lamonte wants to keep it that way, but his ex-wife has a plan of her own that he didn't see coming.

Joe Burrels has been tagged the black sheep in the demise of his brother's marriage as well as the indiscretions he had with his wife's sister, Saphire. But he refused to carry all the blame—after all, cheating does go both ways. He has grown tired of the games and believes the cliché "a black sheep can change"...especially knowing that he may be a father.
