Excerpt: ... tian captive, man or woman. No person shall work them ill or offence, nor take anything from them; and if such ships shall take or send any Christian captive, the said security shall not be valid. At the time they are about to sail, their Highnesses order that one or two Christians shall enter each vessel and find out whether they are carrying away any Christian. We, the king and the queen of Castile, Leon, Aragon, Sicily, etc., by these presents, secure and promise to hold and guard and fulfil all that is contained in this capitulation, in what touches and is incumbent upon us, royally and effectually, as to places, terms, and dates, and according to the manner specified in this capitulation, -- each part and item of it without any fraud. And as security for this, we order the issue of this document, signed with our names and sealed with our seal. Executed in our royal camp in the Vega of Granada, the 25th day of the month of November, 1491. I, The King. I, The Queen. I, Fernando de Zafra, Secretary of the king and queen, our sovereigns, have caused it to be written by their order. II. SECRET CAPITULATION. Executed At The Royal Headquarters In The Vega Of Granada, The 25th Day Of November, 1491. The terms which, by order of the very high and most powerful and most illustrious princes, the King and Queen, our Lords, were agreed upon and settled with the Alcaide Bulcacin el Muley, in the name of Muley Baaudili, king of Granada, and by virtue of his power signed by the said king with his name and sealed with his signet, besides those agreed upon and settled by the articles of agreement and capitulation of the city of Granada, are the following : -- [The first item is exactly the same as that in the capitulation for the surrender.] 2. Item. It is agreed upon and ...
