Born and raised in the mean streets of Philadelphia, gorgeous faced Amena Thomas had to learn what it meant to sacrifice at a young age. After losing her mother, and the love of her life to the penal system she is left to move on with a broken heart that struggles to beat. Against her father's relentless requests for her to join him and her twin brother Amir in a new city. Amena is convinced that at the tender age of twenty she is able to survive on her own.

Just when she thought she had mastered the art of being emotionless, in walks a man that changes her world like she never expected. Appearing to be the perfect replacement, New York native Hassan Davis creates the blueprint that he desires for he and Amena. He undoubtedly possesses unconditional love and genuine feelings for her; however, his hustling past that he thought was zipped tight quickly becomes Amena's new baggage to unpack and sort through. New love forms over old wounds that refuse to heal, and the dark evicts all secrets, forcing them into the revealing light. Amena learns that her unwavering loyalty for her man is both a gift and a curse.

As the money stacks, problems come slamming down like wrecking balls. the more success that the couple gains, the more lives are lost. they soon find themselves in a drought of happiness where peace is nowhere to be found, but mayhem becomes the new sheriff in town.
