Above and Beyond is the first-hand account of a student researcher delving into the afterlife. The book covers the facts on the most basic concepts of afterlife, from the purely physical coroner's office to the sought after Isles of the Blessed and the man-made pits of Hell. A journey through the beliefs and theories that have baffled mankind and shaped each and every culture since the dawn of time, Above and Beyond will explore and explain every fact, myth, and legend of the greatest adventure of life- death.
