Footprints: 50th Anniversary Treasury Margaret Fishback Powers

Inspired by a walk on a beach fifty years ago, “Footprints” has since become a treasured poem bringing comfort and courage to countless people all over the world.

To mark this outstanding milestone, Margaret Fishback Powers gives us a stunning collection of stories, Scripture and memories that reflect the themes of her poem. In honour of its fiftieth anniversary, Margaret has gathered more than fifty stories—never before published—that celebrate compassion and kindness, courage and strength, hope and faith, and gratitude and friendship. As she explains in the book’s introduction, “Some of these stories are about life-changing experiences, while others tell of small, everyday kindnesses that make a lasting impression. Some stories will bring a tear to the eye; others a smile, to the face.”

The Footprints: 50th Anniversary Treasury is a beautiful collection of writing and reflections that remind us why this poem continues to inspire people of all ages and backgrounds.
