The Life and Letters, of St. Francis Xavier, Vol. 2 of 2 (Classic Reprint) Henry James Coleridge

To the Reader. THISS econd Volume has been delayed by causes beyond my control, the effect of which I trust that the reader will forgive. Though it is considerably larger than its predecessor, I have been obliged to omit many documents illustrative of the text which would have made the work more complete. But it seemed better, if possible, to comprise the whole matter within two volumes even though the second should exceed the size originally contemplated in this Series ijian to extend the book to three. I could wish to have found room for several of the letters of the friends and companions of St. Francis, especially of Father Caspar Baertz. Some quotations from them will be found at the end of M. Le on Pages French translation of the Letters. I regret also in particular having been forced to leave out the long letter referred to at pp. 305 and 386 from Joam Fernandez, which is full of interest in relation to the questions of the Japanese bonzes. I must content myself with publicly thanking the kind friends who took the pains to translate it for me from the Portuguese.
